Appendix 1RFHS CHAIRMAN'S REPORT 2023 - 2024*REPORT ON BEHALF OF THE CHAIR, JOHN ALLEN

We have had a very successful but also very frustrating year. Interesting speakers and a wide variety of relevant topics for presentation, ranging from “Tracing your WW2 Ancestors” to a talk entitled “From Renfrewshire to the Caribbean”. Zoom meetings have continued and when possible, meetings now being conducted for both in-person and those using Zoom.

And the frustrations! Numbers using Zoom were equivalent to pre-Covid days and members some distance from Renfrewshire were able to benefit from the presentations. We even had contributions from North America and Australia but people attending meetings obviously don't use Zoom. Zoom meetings require much greater email communication but there have been problems with email getting through; emails maybe going to spam; emails not being read etc. We have had difficulties in assessing the actual use or viewing of the Zoom meetings. We still don't know if the interaction combining meetings with Zoom and “in-person” is practical.

An Abbey group continues to thrive, provide a service for visitors and answer some of the inquiries. Other enquiries are dealt with from Facebook by other committee members.

Now the frustrations!

The Journal publication last year was reduced, the challenges since Covid have been valiantly dealt with by the overworked committee, and the number of membership renewals are causing concern. Although meeting attendance numbers have remained fairly constant, the fall in membership numbers would be more concerning if we are not successful maintaining a satisfactory service to both sectors.

All the committee have achieved fantastic results in providing continuing support, Journals, answering inquiries, Zoom presentations and most recently Zoom hybrid meetings. However, without new blood to the society, more help for the committee and additional volunteers taken together with a shrinking membership, the future viability is of great concern. Your suggestions and comments are needed to help determine the way forward!

I must thank all the committee for their continuing commitment and support. Peter Hutchison is stepping down as membership secretary but will continue with the Abbey Group and interacting with members and the public. Lesley Morgan will be taking over the memberships' secretary role. Husband, Glyn, will take on the remainder of the secretarial roles formerly covered by Lesley as part of her part of the Joint Secretaryship. Everyone else in the committee has agreed to continue in office. Without the efforts of the committee we would not have survived so successfully.

I have served as chair much longer than the three-year term defined in the Constitution and would be delighted to stand down for any suitable nominee volunteer to stand for election. Are there any other nominations for the election to the committee?

Appendix 2

Joint Secretaries' Report - May 2024.

1. Members' Meetings

We echo John's thanks to members for continuing to support the society by taking part in meetings over the last year.

It is disappointing that, since resuming live meetings in March, the overall number of participants (Zoom plus in-person) has reduced. It is hoped that numbers will increase over time as we develop and improve the arrangements. Whilst we intend to invest in better equipment, the Committee will monitor participation levels to avoid spending money unnecessarily if there would be little benefit due to a low number of people take part in meetings.

Speakers have been arranged for the 2024-25 session which commences from September 19th after the summer break.

2. Future meetings

It is intended to continue holding hybrid meetings at the Paisley South Church Hall, commencing at 7.30 pm

19th September 2024	Reformatories in Scotland Morag Peers, Genealogist
17th October 2024	For the Salvation of Destitute and Neglected Children Christine Woodcock, Genealogist
21st November 2024	Irish Migrants to Greenock from 1831-1861 Isabel Lind OBE
12th December 2024	To be confirmed
16th January 2025	To be confirmed
20th February 2025	To be confirmed
20th March 2025	The Great and the Good – a Tour of Woodside Cemetery ... without getting wet! Valerie Reilly
17th April 2025	To be confirmed
15th May 2025	Annual General Meeting, and, The Lighthouse Stevensons Bella Bathurst

We are always on the look-out for ideas on speakers and subjects

Members are invited to let us know if they can suggest anyone who might be able to speak at a future meeting - or - speak themselves.

1. News and Events

a. Family History Federation

The Society recently joined the Federation of Family History Societies which, it is hoped, will increase our global profile through the Federation's website, directory of family history societies and monthly bulletins. See: -

<https://www.familyhistoryfederation.com/>

b. Creative Craft Show

Barabara Morrison represented the Society at the March Creative Craft Show held at the Scottish Exhibition and Conference Centre

c. Inverclyde Heritage Fair, 20th May 2023

The 2024 Inverclyde Heritage Fair will be taking place on 18th May (this coming Saturday) at the Watt Institute, Kelly Street, Greenock.

Entry is free and the event is open from 10:30 AM to 3:30 PM

RFHS representatives will be present with a range of publications for sale

Last year's Fair was well attended and a number of publications were sold.

d. Paisley's Sma' Shot Day

Paisley's 2024 Sma' Shot Day will take place on Saturday, 6th July.

Depending on availability of people, the Society may be able to participate in the parade. Could any members who would like to take part contact please let us know

2. Publications

A number of CDs and printed publications had been ordered over the course of the year.

The Society is conscious of the increasingly high cost of postage and steps have been taken to address this. Whilst still being trialled, a number of items can now be delivered by electronic download. So far the system appears to be working.

3. Enquiries to the Society

A number of enquiries and assistance requests have been received over the last year which, members of the committee and 'Abbey' Group have responded to and, hopefully, been of help to the members concerned.

Appendix 3RFHS Treasurer's Report Year 2023/2024*Income

We had a surplus in this financial year of £612 compared with a surplus last financial year of £1731

Income from subscriptions is down by £424. This can vary and also can be dependent on when members renew their subscriptions.

Net income from Publications was up by £118

Donations were up - amount £4

Income generated by RFH Society information on Find My Past was down by £192

Expenditure

Meeting Expenses were up £180 – this item was gift donations to our speakers. Our Professional Genealogists asked for £80 instead of the standard £50.

General Printing, Stationery etc was down from last year – we are interacting with most of our members electronically.

Please note that postage charges for Publications have risen significantly – it is now £69.49 for £230 worth of orders.

There was no direct expenditure on the journals as we distributed the journals electronically.

We currently have some insurance coverage as part of our SAFHS membership.

Sundry expenses – £35 on copying 1839 map of Paisley (which contains many 'Owners names').

Internet & Web services were up £181 - we purchased an email distribution package. This is to email our members more reliably. We renewed our Zoom subscription, our web site hosting costs, domain name registration, (SSL) Secure Sockets Layer for https security and Akismet to protect our website from too much Spam.

General expenses were for a subscription to Inverclyde Heritage Network (£25)

RENFREWSHIRE FAMILY HISTORY SOCIETY

Recognised Charity No. SC030406

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION AND RULES

Annual General Meeting 15th May 2025

Background

In 2024 the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator highlighted a requirement for Renfrewshire Family History Society to have a Conflict of Interest Policy applicable to charity Trustees, i.e. Committee Members. As a consequence of this requirement, a register of conflicts of interest should be maintained and, Committee meetings must provide for the declaration of any new conflicts of interest.

Whilst the above requirement has, in part, been addressed by including 'Conflicts of Interest' as a standing agenda item, it is proposed that the need for a Conflict of Interest Policy be met by inserting an appropriate new section into the Society's constitution.

Amendments to the constitution can only be made at an Annual General Meeting. Members are, therefore, requested to consider and approve the appended revised Constitution at the Society's 15th May 2025 Annual General Meeting.

The need for the above amendment prompted the Committee to review the Constitution to identify other amendments that might improve the Constitution's effectiveness. As a result several additional amendments are proposed for approval.

Proposed Amendments

The appended draft Constitution includes explanatory notes against the relevant proposed amendments but, for ease of reading, the proposed amendments and notes are set out below.

1. Existing rule 4.1A renumbered to become rule 4.3

2. New paragraph 4.2 inserted to clarify the status of committee members as "Trustees".

4.2 Committee members are designated 'Trustees' of the Society within the meaning of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005.

3. Paragraph 5.3 amended as below. This rule limited serving as Chairperson to 3-year term and required stand-down for one year before being eligible for re-election.. Amendment is required to accommodate the current situation where no nominations for the role have been received for considerably longer than 3 years.

5.3 The Chairperson shall be elected for a maximum period of three years, and be eligible for re-election

4. New Section 6 inserted to address absence of Conflict of Interest Policy as identified by the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator's 2024 report.

6 CONFLICT OF INTEREST

- 6.1 This section of the Constitution exists to protect the Society and provide assurance that members of the Society's Committee make fair decisions.*
- 6.2 All trustees of the Renfrewshire Family History Society shall act in the best interests of the Society and its members when making decisions.*
- 6.3 Trustees will avoid any conflicts of interest or loyalty (actual and perceived) between the interests of the Renfrewshire Family History Society and their own personal, professional, and financial interests.*
- 6.4 Examples of a conflict of interest include:*
- 6.4.1 A trustee who is employed by another organisation, competing for the same funding/contracts.*
 - 6.4.2 A trustee who has a financial interest in a business that may do work or provide services for the Society.*
 - 6.4.3 A trustee who also holds office in another organisation with an interest in genealogical information.*
- 6.5 A Register of Trustees' Interests will be held by the Society and updated annually.*
- 6.6 Each trustee shall report details of any conflict of interest when they are appointed.*
- 6.7 Declaration of conflict of interest shall be a standard agenda item.*
- 6.7.1 Trustees shall identify and disclose any conflict of interest at the start of a meeting. The trustee will then withdraw from the discussion, and may not be able to take part in the decision/vote, depending on the judgement of the other trustees present at the time*
 - 6.7.2 The disclosure of a conflict of interest and the actions taken will be noted in the minutes*

5. Sections and paragraphs renumbered to accommodate the insertion of 4.2 and Section 6.
